

The nation's guarantors provide the following summaries to inform schools, lenders, and servicers of the latest Common Manual policy changes. These changes will appear in the manual's next annual update. These changes will also be incorporated into the Integrated Common Manual. The Integrated Common Manual is available on several guarantor websites, and it is also available on Common Manual's website at www.commonmanual.org. Please carefully note the effective date of each policy change.

Institutional Eligibility and Reporting Requirements

The Common Manual has been revised to state that schools must submit requests for initial certification, recertification, reinstatement, a change in ownership, updates to a current approval or designation as an eligible institution to the Department via the Application for Approval to Participate in the Federal Student Financial Aid Programs (E-App).

Cohort Default Rate Notification

The Common Manual has been revised to include an explanation of the electronic process by which the Department notifies a domestic school of its draft and official cohort default rates (eCDR) through the Student Aid Internet Gateway (SAIG). All domestic schools are required to enroll in the SAIG. Schools are required to designate a SAIG destination point for the receipt of the eCDR notifications. The Department mails draft and official cohort default rate notifications foreign schools.

Affected Sections:	16.1 Overview of Cohort Default Rates and Terminology
Effective Date:	Domestic school's receipt of draft and official cohort default rate notifications on or after June 1, 2005.

Guarantor Comments: None.

Return of the Federal Default Fee (or Guarantee Fee)

Subsection 10.11.E of the Common Manual has been revised to reflect the change in terminology from guarantee fee to federal default fee and to clarify that if a lender deducted the federal default fee (or guarantee fee), and/or origination fee from the borrower's loan proceeds, the lender must reduce the fee(s) proportionate to the amount of returned loan funds that the lender receives from a school. In addition, section B.2 has been revised to clarify that in refinancing a loan to secure a variable interest rate, the guarantor may not charge the borrower a federal default fee (formerly guarantee fee), nor may the lender deduct the fee from the borrower's loan proceeds.

Affected Sections: 10.11.E Applying Funds Returned by the School
B.2 Option 2: Refinancing to Secure a Variable Interest Rate

Effective Date: Federal Stafford and PLUS loans guaranteed on or after July 1, 2006.
Basis: Higher Education Act of 1965, Section 428(b)(1)(H)(i) and (ii) and Section 428H(h), as amended by the Higher Education Reconciliation Act (HERA) of 2005; Dear Colleague Letter GEN-06-02.
