Summary of Changes Approved through June 2014

This summary lists changes made since the 2013 Annual Update of the Common Manual. Following are the latest policy changes, which were approved January 16, April 17, and June 19, 2014. Changes made before the 2013 Annual Update are noted in Appendix H.

The lender must verbally review with the borrower or endorser the terms of the forbearance, including the consequences of interest capitalization, and all other repayment options available to the borrower or endorser. Also adds information regarding a borrower’s or endorser’s affirmation of the debt. An affirmation in this case means an acknowledgement of the loan by the borrower or endorser in a legally binding manner. The form of the affirmation of the debt may include, but is not limited to, one of the following:
  • A new signed repayment agreement or schedule, or another form of signed agreement to repay the debt;
  • A verbal acknowledgment and agreement to repay the debt documented by the lender in the borrower’s file and confirmed by the lender in a notice to the borrower or endorser; or
  • A payment made on the loan by the borrower or endorser. Further, states that if the lender grants a discretionary forbearance based on a verbal agreement and affirmation of the debt, the lender must record the forbearance terms and the affirmation of the debt in the borrower’s file. must obtain data directly from the relevant guarantor’s, lender’s, or servicer’s system and must display the data without any modification. The school must retain an image of the information it obtains from the real-time Website that clearly identifies the borrower, the status of the debt, and the source of the data. For a guarantor that is not the holder of the defaulted loan(s) to guarantee a new loan, the school or the borrower must obtain documentation that the default has been resolved (such as a copy of the original promissory note stamped “paid in full,” information accessed directly from a loan holder’s database, or a letter from the holder of the defaulted loan(s) stating that the borrower has resolved the default). The documentation must be included with the new loan request when it is sent to the guarantor for guarantee processing, unless the information is already available to the guarantor.

▲ Schools may contact individual guarantors for more information on documenting and submitting information regarding a prior loan default. See Section 1.5 for contact information.

5.2.F Department of Justice Data Match

A separate data match is performed by the Central Processing System (CPS) against a file provided by the Department of Justice (DOJ). This data matching program provides information regarding individuals convicted of federal or state offenses involving drug trafficking or possession of a controlled substance who have been denied Title IV program benefits by federal or state courts. This ensures that federal student aid is not awarded to individuals subject to denial of these benefits under court orders. For more information on the DOJ data match, see the 09-10 FSA Handbook, Volume 1, Chapter 1, p. 1-12.

5.2.G Department of Veterans Affairs Data Match

If a student has indicated on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) that he or she is an eligible veteran of the U.S. Armed Forces, the student is considered to be independent and does not have to provide parental income and asset information to apply for Title IV aid. The Central Processing System (CPS) matches data with the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) to confirm that an applicant who states that he or she is a veteran on the VA data match, see the 09-10 FSA Handbook, Application and Verification Guide, Chapter 2, p. AVG-26.

5.3 Reinstatement of Title IV Eligibility after Default

A borrower with one or more defaulted Title IV loans, or defaulted Title IV loans for which a judgment has been obtained, may have his or her eligibility for Title IV aid reinstated by requesting reinstatement and making satisfactory repayment arrangements, and fulfilling those arrangements with the holder of each defaulted loan or with the holder of each defaulted loan for which a judgment has been obtained.

[$§668.35(a) and (b); §682.401(b)(4)]

A borrower who receives loan funds for which he or she is ineligible due solely to his or her error may not have Title IV eligibility reinstated until the ineligible funds are repaid in full.

[$§682.412]

To have eligibility for Title IV aid reinstated, a borrower must make six consecutive full monthly payments to the appropriate holder for each defaulted loan. These payments must be made on time (within 45-20 days of the payment due date), voluntarily (directly by the borrower, regardless of whether there is a judgment against the borrower), and must be reasonable and affordable. Any court-ordered payments or involuntary payments obtained by state offsets or federal Treasury offsets, wage garnishment, or income or asset execution will not count toward the six payments required for reinstatement. A lump sum prepayment of future installments does not satisfy the requirement for six consecutive monthly payments and will not restate a borrower’s Title IV eligibility.

[$§682.200(b) 1]

Upon receipt of the borrower’s new loan request or request for reinstatement of eligibility, the guarantor will review the most recent 6-month period. Each of the six required payments must be received within 15 days of the due dates for the 6 months immediately preceding receipt of the request.

[$§682.200(b) definition of undergraduate]

A borrower whose Title IV eligibility is reinstated will regain loan eligibility for the academic year in which the borrower satisfies the payment requirements to regain

1. Policy 1297 (Batch 199), approved April 17, 2014
Title IV eligibility. Accordingly, the financial aid administrator may certify a loan for the entire academic year, as long as the student is otherwise eligible. After a borrower’s Title IV eligibility is reinstated, the borrower must continue to maintain satisfactory repayment arrangements on each loan that defaulted in order to continue to be eligible for additional Title IV aid.

[§682.200(b) definition of undergraduate]

A borrower may reestablish Title IV eligibility only once. If a borrower has reestablished his or her eligibility and then fails to maintain satisfactory payment arrangements on that defaulted loan, or a defaulted loan for which a judgment has been obtained, the borrower may not reestablish his or her eligibility again under these provisions. However, if a borrower reinstates Title IV eligibility but does not obtain new Title IV funds before defaulting again on a loan, the borrower is not considered to have used the one-time reinstatement opportunity. An opportunity for reinstatement may be made available to a borrower regardless of whether any of the borrower’s defaulted loans have been repurchased by an eligible lender.

[§668.35(c); §682.200(b) definition of undergraduate satisfactory repayment arrangements]

See Section H.4 for information about a statutory or regulatory waiver authorized by the HEROES Act that may impact these requirements.

5.4 Prior Loan Written Off

A borrower is ineligible for a FFELP loan if he or she has had a prior FFELP loan partially or totally written off by a guarantor (i.e., the guarantor has stopped all collection activity on the written-off portion). To become eligible to receive a new FFELP loan, a borrower must reaffirm the written-off loan, provide confirmation of that reaffirmation to the school, and meet the requirements of Subsection 5.2.D. Reaffirmation is the borrower’s legally binding acknowledgment of a loan repayment obligation that has been partially or totally written off and agreement to the reinstatement of the borrower’s repayment obligation. A borrower whose prior FFELP loan has been partially or totally written off by a lender is not required to reaffirm the written-off loan as a condition of eligibility for a new FFELP loan.

The reaffirmation may include, but is not limited to, the following:

- Making a payment on the loan.
  [§682.201(a)(4)(ii)(B)]

- Signing a new repayment agreement or promissory note that includes the original terms and conditions applicable to the loan being reaffirmed.
  [§682.201(a)(4)(ii)(A)]

The reaffirmed amount must include all principal and interest accrued on the written-off portion of the loan through the date on which the borrower reaffirms his or her commitment to repay the loan. It may also include collection costs, late charges, court costs, and attorney fees. Any outstanding charges, such as interest, collection costs, late charges, court costs, or attorney fees, may be capitalized as of the date the loan is reaffirmed.

[§682.201(a)(4)(i); DCL 96-L-186/96-G-287, Q&A #4, #7, #8, #9, and #11]

1. Policy 1297 (Batch 199), approved April 17, 2014
5.10 Required High School Diploma or Equivalent

A student who is convicted of a drug-related offense that occurred while the student was enrolled in school and receiving Title IV aid loses Title IV eligibility as follows:

- For the possession of illegal drugs:
  - 1st offense: one year from the date of conviction.
  - 2nd offense: two years from the date of the second conviction.
  - 3rd offense: indefinitely from the date of the third conviction.

- For the sale of illegal drugs:
  - 1st offense: two years from the date of conviction.
  - 2nd offense: indefinitely from the date of the second conviction.

A school must provide a student who loses Title IV eligibility due to a drug-related conviction with a timely, separate, clear, and conspicuous written notice. The notice must advise the student of his or her loss of Title IV eligibility and the ways in which the student may regain that eligibility.

A student may regain eligibility at any time by successfully completing an approved drug rehabilitation program or successfully passing two unannounced drug tests conducted by an approved drug rehabilitation program, and by informing the school that he or she has done so. A student regains Title IV eligibility on the date he or she successfully completes the program, or in the case of a student who successfully passes two unannounced drug tests, on the date that the student passes the second unannounced drug test. A drug rehabilitation program is considered approved for these purposes if it includes at least two unannounced drug tests and meets one of the following criteria:

- The program received or is qualified to receive funds directly or indirectly under a federal, state, or local government program.
- The program is administered or recognized by a federal, state, or local government agency or court.
- The program received or is qualified to receive payment directly or indirectly from a federally or state-licensed insurance company.
- The program administered or recognized by a federally or state-licensed hospital, health clinic, or medical doctor.

For a student whose Title IV eligibility is reinstated after a drug conviction, the maximum loan period that a school may certify is the academic year during which the student regains eligibility. However, the school may not certify eligibility prior to the date on which eligibility is regained. A student who loses eligibility during a loan period is immediately ineligible to receive subsequent disbursements of FFELP funds and is required to repay any Title IV funds received after the date he or she loses eligibility. Schools are not required to recalculate a student’s loan amount.

To be eligible for Title IV aid, the student must have a high school diploma or its equivalent. Historically some students may have been admitted under prior ability-to-benefit provisions; see History of Ability-to-Benefit Provisions, Appendix H.3. A school must develop and follow procedures to evaluate the validity of a student’s claim of high school completion if the school or the Department has reason to believe that the student’s high school diploma is not valid or the student obtained a diploma from an entity that does not provide secondary school education (see also Section 4.2).
The following are considered equivalent to a high school diploma for establishing Title IV eligibility:

- A General Education Development (GED) Certificate—or a state certificate issued after a student passes an approved examination that the state recognizes as an equivalent to the GED. [§668.32(e)(3)]

- An academic transcript in a recognized program. A school may admit a limited number of students without high school diplomas or equivalent certificates who have excelled academically in high school and met the school’s admissions standards. If such a student completes a program of at least two years that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor’s degree, the academic transcript for that program would be considered the equivalent of a high school diploma. [§668.32(b)]

- A high school diploma or transcript from another country, as long as the diploma is equivalent to a U.S. high school diploma. If a student who completed high school in a foreign country is unable to obtain a copy of his or her high school diploma or transcript, he or she may obtain a copy of a “secondary school leaving certificate” (or other similar document) through the appropriate central government agency (e.g., the Ministry of Education) of the country where the student completed high school. Schools may hire a credential evaluation service to determine the validity of the diploma, transcript, or secondary school leaving certificate, or the school itself may make the determination itself if qualified to do so. [§668.16(p); 07-08 FSA Handbook, Volume 1, Chapter 1, GEN-13-16]

5.11 Ability-to-Benefit Provisions

If a school is aware that a student has a disqualifying status that would not permit the student to be employed in the occupation for which the school’s program prepares students, the student is not eligible to receive Title IV aid. A student should not be considered to have an ability to benefit if, at the time of loan certification, the student would not meet the requirements for employment in the student’s state of residency in the occupation for which the student is training. The disqualifying factor may be a physical or mental condition, age, criminal record, or any other reason accepted by the Department. The school will not be held responsible for improper certification if it could not reasonably be expected to be aware of the student’s disqualifying condition. For information about false certification loan discharge based on ability-to-benefit provisions, see Subsection 13.8.D. [§682.402(e)(13)]

5.12 Student Enrollment Requirements

Each eligible student who is seeking a Stafford loan—or on whose behalf a PLUS loan is being sought—must meet the following enrollment requirements:

- The student must not be enrolled in either an elementary or secondary school. [§668.32(b)]

- The student must be enrolled or accepted for enrollment as a regular student in one of the following:

  - An eligible degree or certificate program on at least a half-time basis at a participating school approved by the Department and the guarantor (except as noted below), or the student’s coursework is partially or totally offered through distance education subject to the limitations described in Section 5.13. [§668.38; §682.201(a)]

  - A study-abroad program that is approved for credit by the participating school at which the student is enrolled, whether or not the study-abroad program is a required part of the student’s degree program (see Subsection 5.14.B). [§668.39]

A student who has previously obtained a bachelor’s or professional degree is eligible for loan assistance, provided he or she meets all applicable eligibility criteria.

There are two exceptions to the FFELP eligibility requirement that a student be enrolled or accepted for enrollment as a regular student in a degree or certificate program:

- Preparatory Coursework
  A student who is not enrolled in a degree or certificate program is eligible for Stafford or PLUS loans for a period of up to one year if the student is taking preparatory courses necessary for his or her enrollment
6.3.F Students Returning to a Non-Term-Based Credit-Hour or Clock-Hour Program after a Withdrawal

6.3.E Excused Absences in Clock-Hour Programs

For the purposes of determining whether a student has successfully completed the clock hours in a payment period, a school may count an excused absence (an absence the student does not have to make up) if:

- The school has a written policy that permits excused absences.

- The number of excused absences under the written policy for purposes of determining payment periods does not exceed the lesser of:
  - The school’s accrediting agency’s excused absence policy.
  - The excused absence policy of any state agency that licenses or legally authorizes the school to operate in the state.
  - Ten percent of the clock hours in the payment period.

$[§668.4(e)]$

6.3.F Students Returning to a Non-Term-Based Credit-Hour or Clock-Hour Program after a Withdrawal

If a student withdraws from a program but re-enters that same program within 180 days, the school is required to place the student in the same payment period in which the student was originally enrolled when the withdrawal occurred. The student is again eligible to receive any loan funds for which he or she was eligible prior to the withdrawal, including any funds that may have been returned by the school or student as part of the return of Title IV funds process.

$[§668.4(f)]$

In addition, a school may consider a student who transfers to a different program at the same school to remain in the same payment period if all of the following conditions are met:

- The student is continuously enrolled at the school.

- The coursework in the payment period the student is transferring out of is substantially similar to the coursework the student will be taking when he or she first transfers into the new program.

- The payment periods are substantially equal in length in weeks of instructional time and credit or clock hours.

- There are minimal or no changes in institutional charges associated with the payment period.

- The credits from the payment period the student is transferring out of are accepted toward the new program.

$[§668.4(g)(3)]$

In both of the instances above, the student remains in the same academic year. The school may not originate a new annual loan limit for the student until he or she completes both the number of credit or clock hours, and the number of weeks of instructional time in the program’s Title IV academic year definition.

If, however, for a student who returns to the same program after 180 days or, at any time, either transfers into a different program at the same school that does not meet the criteria noted above or enrolls in another school, the applicable school must calculate a new payment period for the remainder of the student’s program based on how program progress is measured. For purposes of calculating payment periods only, the length of the program is the number of credit hours or clock hours and the number of weeks of instructional time that the student has remaining in the program he or she entered or re-entered. If the remaining hours and weeks constitute one half of an academic year or less, the remaining hours constitute one payment period. In this case, the student begins a new academic year upon transfer into a different program, enrollment at another school, or re-entry into the same program at the same school after 180 days. However, the school must determine whether the student’s new academic year overlaps with the immediately preceding academic year in order to determine the student’s initial Stafford loan eligibility. See Subsection 6.11.A under the subheading Transfer Students for additional information about determining the frequency of annual loan limits for students enrolled in clock-hour programs or non-term-based, credit-hour programs.

$[§668.4(g)(1) and (2)]$

There is one exception to this rule: a school may consider a student who transfers to a different program at the same school to remain in the same payment period if all of the following conditions are met:

- The student is continuously enrolled at the school.

6.4 Determining the Disbursement Schedule

Federal regulations require a school to specify a disbursement schedule that provides for disbursements to be made on a payment-period basis for each Stafford and PLUS loan it certifies. The school, or a guarantor acting on behalf of the school, may subsequently modify that schedule. The school may delegate its responsibility for assigning disbursement dates to a guarantor with whom it participates.

A school should attempt to assign disbursement dates with which the lender may reasonably comply. The school should not specify a disbursement date that will likely pass before the loan is guaranteed. An expired disbursement date may result in delayed processing of the loan.

In establishing the disbursement schedule, a school must allow for necessary mail and processing time. The school should provide the dates on which it would expect the lender to issue the check or master check or generate the EFT transaction—not the date on which the school anticipates receiving the funds. In addition, the school must schedule disbursement dates that comply with applicable delivery requirements. For more information on delivery requirements, see Section 8.7.

The requirement that disbursements be made on a payment-period basis (see Section 6.3 for information regarding payment periods) does not eliminate any applicable multiple disbursement requirement (see Subsection 6.4.A) for a school to deliver loan proceeds in substantially equal installments, with no installment exceeding one half of the loan amount. See Subsection 6.4.A for information about multiple disbursement and Section 8.7 for information about proportional disbursement and special delivery requirements for programs with nonstandard terms. [§682.604(c)(6) and (7)]

6.4.A Multiple Disbursements and Low Cohort Default Rate Exemptions

The school must establish a disbursement schedule that ensures that a Stafford or PLUS loan is disbursed in two or more installments, regardless of the loan amount. A school may deliver a Stafford or PLUS loan in a single installment only in the following cases:

- For a loan disbursement made on or after October 1, 2011, the school has a cohort default rate of less than 15% for each of the three most recent fiscal years for which data are available, and any one of the following conditions applies:
  - The loan is certified for a period of enrollment that is not more than one semester, trimester, or quarter.
  - In a nonstandard term-based program with terms that are substantially equal and at least 9 weeks of instructional time in length (SE9W), the loan is certified for a period of enrollment that is not more than one nonstandard term. However, a school must schedule at least two disbursements of a loan made for a single, nonstandard term that is SE9W, but that is more than 4 months in length.
  - In a nonstandard term-based program with terms that are not SE9W - i.e., the terms are not substantially equal or each term is not at least 9 weeks of instructional time in length - or in a non-term-based program, the loan is certified for a period of enrollment that is not more than 4 months.

- The loan is certified to a student enrolled in a study-abroad program, and the school at which the student will receive course credit for the study-abroad program has an official cohort default rate that is less than 5% for the most recent fiscal year for which data are available.

\[1\] Policy 1292 (Batch 197), approved January 16, 2014
10.8.A Standard Repayment Schedule

Lenders must offer all borrowers their choice of repayment schedule no more than 6 months before the first payment due date. Details regarding repayment schedule options are outlined in Subsections 10.8.A through 10.8.E. For more information on Consolidation loan repayment, see Section 15.5.

A borrower must select a repayment schedule within 45 days of the lender’s notification and advise the lender of that choice. If a borrower does not respond within 45 days—or selects an ISR or an IBR schedule but does not provide the required documentation—the lender must establish a standard repayment schedule. A borrower also may request a change in his or her repayment schedule. A lender must comply with an eligible borrower’s request to revise his or her choice of repayment schedule at least once annually, except that a borrower may request IBR at any time.

A lender must combine, to the extent practicable, all FFELP loans owed by a borrower to the lender into a single account to be repaid under a single repayment schedule. For loans serviced in this manner, the word “loan” in this section means all of the borrower’s loans that are combined by the lender into that account. However, for National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) reporting, the Department requires that a lender maintain repayment records for each loan—even though the lender combined the loans into a single repayment schedule.

10.8.B Graduated Repayment Schedule

When a lender establishes a graduated repayment schedule, the amount of the borrower’s installment payment is scheduled to change (usually increasing) over the repayment period. When establishing these payment amounts, a lender must ensure that no single installment is more than three times greater than any other installment. A lender is not required to have a separate payment agreement with the borrower if the graduated repayment schedule provides for the borrower to pay less than the minimum annual payment amount.

10.8.C Income-Sensitive Repayment Schedule

If a borrower selects an income-sensitive repayment schedule, the borrower must provide the lender with information on the expected total monthly gross income the borrower receives from all sources. Except for a spousal Consolidation loan, expected total monthly gross income from all sources does not include income earned or received by a borrower’s spouse.

To ensure the income information is current, the borrower cannot provide the income information any earlier than 90 days before the first payment due date. If the borrower’s loan entered repayment without the lender’s knowledge, the lender may obtain the income information earlier than 90 days before the first payment due date.

The lender will determine whether the borrower qualifies for an income-sensitive repayment schedule based on the borrower’s expected total monthly gross income. If the borrower reports income the lender considers insufficient to establish a monthly payment that will repay the loan within the maximum applicable repayment period, the lender must request documentation showing the amount of the most recent total monthly gross income from employment and other sources received by the borrower. This can include, if applicable, pay statements from employers and documentation of any income received by the borrower from other parties. When establishing these payment amounts, a lender must ensure that no single installment is more than three times greater than any other installment. [§682.209(a)(6)(ii)]

The lender must collect and review the borrower’s income documentation annually and adjust the borrower’s payment amount accordingly. To ensure income information is current, the borrower cannot provide the information any earlier than 90 days before the payment is scheduled to be adjusted. The borrower must provide at least one piece of supporting documentation for each source of income. Documentation may include paystubs, a copy of the borrower’s most recently filed federal tax return, a letter(s) from his or her employer(s) listing income, interest or bank statements, dividend statements, or other documentation may also be used to verify income. Unless the frequency is clearly indicated on the documentation, the borrower must write on the documentation how often he or she is receiving the income, for example, “twice per month” or “every other week” or provide that information verbally to the lender. If these forms of documentation are unavailable, the borrower must provide a signed statement explaining the income source(s) and giving the name and the address of the source(s). If the borrower is self employed, he or she may provide a signed statement explaining the projected monthly income from all sources; no additional documentation is required.

The lender must inform the borrower that the loan must be repaid within the maximum repayment period allowed. However, the lender must grant a forbearance to the borrower—or endorser, if applicable—for a period of up to 5 years in cases where the effect of decreased installment amounts paid under an income-sensitive repayment schedule would result in a loan not being repaid within the maximum repayment period (see Section 11.23). [§682.209(a)(6)(viii)(D)]

10.8.D Income-Based Repayment Schedule

Beginning on July 1, 2009, a borrower may request to repay any eligible loan under an income-based repayment (IBR) plan. A borrower who requests the IBR plan on or after July 1, 2013, must repay all of his or her eligible loans held by that lender under the IBR plan. If a borrower previously excluded IBR-eligible loans prior to July 1, 2013, the borrower may continue to exclude such loans from IBR as long as the borrower remains under the IBR plan. If the borrower has multiple lenders and wants to repay all eligible loans under the IBR plan, the borrower must request IBR from each lender separately. Eligible FFELP and Direct loans include the outstanding balances on all loans except:

- A defaulted loan.
- A FFELP or Direct parent PLUS loan.
- A FFELP or Direct Consolidation loan that repaid a FFELP or Direct parent PLUS loan. [§682.215(b)(3)]

A borrower may request an income-based repayment plan through the use of the Income-Based (IBR) / Pay As You Earn / Income-Contingent (ICR) Repayment Plan Request form.

If a borrower selects IBR, the lender must determine, based on the borrower’s documentation, if the borrower has a partial financial hardship (PFH) for the initial year in which the borrower selects this repayment plan and annually for each subsequent year that the borrower remains in the plan. A PFH exists if the borrower has an annual payment amount based on the loan balance of all of his or her eligible, outstanding FFELP and Direct loans that exceeds 15% of the difference between the borrower’s adjusted gross income (AGI) and 150% of the poverty guideline for the borrower’s family size and state of residence. The annual payment amount is calculated under a standard repayment schedule and based on a 10-year repayment period. The loan balance used is the greater of the following:

- The amount due on all eligible loans when the borrower initially entered repayment (i.e., standard-standard).
- The amount due on all eligible loans when the borrower requests the IBR plan (i.e., permanent-standard).

The poverty guideline refers to the income by state and family size as published annually by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS). If a borrower is not a resident of a state listed in the poverty guidelines, the lender uses the DHHS poverty guideline for the 48 contiguous states.

To enable the lender to determine whether the borrower has a PFH, the lender must collect documentation of the borrower’s AGI that is acceptable to the lender.

1. Policy 1291 (Batch 197), approved January 16, 2014
If the borrower’s AGI is not available or the lender believes that the borrower’s reported AGI does not reasonably reflect the borrower’s current income, the lender must collect other documentation to verify the borrower’s income. The borrower must provide at least one piece of supporting documentation for each source of income. Documentation may include paystubs, a copy of the borrower’s most recently filed federal tax return, a letter(s) from his or her employer(s) listing income, interest or bank statements, dividend statements, or other documentation may also be used to verify income. Unless the frequency is clearly indicated on the documentation, the borrower must write on the documentation how often he or she is receiving the income, for example, “twice per month” or “every other week” or provide that information verbally to the lender. If these forms of documentation are unavailable, the borrower must provide a signed statement explaining the income source(s) and giving the name and the address of the source(s). If the borrower is self employed, he or she may provide a signed statement explaining the projected monthly income from all sources; no additional documentation is required. [§682.215(e)(1)(i) and (ii); §685.221(e)(1)(i) and (ii)]

For married borrowers filing federal income taxes separately, AGI includes only the borrower’s income. Married borrowers who file separately are not required to include their spouse’s income and may not include their spouse’s eligible debt when determining eligibility for PFH under the Income-Based Repayment plan. However, married borrowers who reside in community property states and file separately must divide all community income equally between each other when filing federal income taxes. As a result, such borrowers may state that their reported AGI does not reasonably reflect their own current income. In these cases, the Department encourages loan holders to request and use alternative documentation to determine the borrower’s eligibility for PFH and the PFH payment amount. [Final Rules published in the Federal Register dated November 1, 2012, p. 66112]

For a married borrower filing jointly, AGI includes both the borrower’s and spouse’s income. A married borrower who files a joint tax return may include with his or her eligible loans any eligible loans owed by the borrower’s spouse for purposes of determining PFH eligibility. If the lender does not hold at least one of the spouse’s eligible loans, the lender must obtain the spouse’s consent for the lender to obtain information about the spouse’s eligible loans from the National Student Loan Data System or obtain from the borrower or spouse other documentation, acceptable to the lender, of the spouse’s eligible loan information. In this situation, the lender must:

Step 1: Determine each spouse’s percentage of the couple’s total eligible loan debt.

Step 2: Adjust the borrower’s monthly payment amount by multiplying the calculated total payment amount by the percentage calculated in Step 1.

If a borrower’s loans are held by multiple lenders, the lender must adjust the monthly payment amount by multiplying the payment calculated in Step 2 by the percentage of the total outstanding principal balance of eligible loans held by the lender.

Step 3: Apply the PFH payment amount rules explained under the Payment Amount Calculation subheading below. [§682.215(a)(1) and (b)(1)(ii); §682.215(e)(1)(iii); §685.221(a)(1) and (b)(2)(ii)]

The borrower must provide a self-certification of family size to the lender. If the borrower fails to certify family size, the lender must assume a family size of one. Family size includes the following:

- The borrower and the borrower’s spouse.
- The borrower’s children, including unborn children who will be born during the year for which the borrower certifies family size, if the borrower provides more than half of the children’s support.
- Other individuals who, at the time the borrower certifies family size, live with the borrower and receive more than half of their support from the borrower and will continue to receive this support from the borrower for the year being certified. Support includes money, gifts, loans, housing, food, clothes, car, medical and dental care, and payment of college costs.

Payment Amount Calculation

The borrower’s maximum annual payment to determine PFH is limited to no more than 15% of the amount by which the borrower’s annual adjusted gross income exceeds 150% of the DHHS poverty guideline for the borrower’s family size. The result is divided by 12 to obtain the monthly payment amount.

PFH Eligibility and Payment Amount Calculation Example:
must notify the borrower promptly in writing that the funds have been received.
[§682.209(i)]

If the lender applies funds received from the school to the borrower’s account after it has established the borrower’s repayment terms, the lender is strongly encouraged to recalculate the repayment terms when doing so will result in a reduced payment amount. If the lender recalculates the repayment terms and the borrower’s payment amount is reduced due to the returned funds, the lender must provide the borrower with a revised repayment disclosure. Under no circumstances should the lender advance the borrower’s payment due date as a result of funds being returned by the school. School requirements for the return of Title IV funds are outlined in Section 9.5.

10.12 Lender Disclosures during Repayment

A lender must provide a borrower in repayment a bill or statement that corresponds to each installment period for which a payment is due and that includes, in simple and understandable terms, each of the following:

- The original principal amount of the borrower’s loan.
- The borrower’s current balance, as of the time of the bill or statement.
- The interest rate on the loan.
- The total amount of interest that the borrower has paid on the loan since the last bill or statement.
- The aggregate amount the borrower has paid on the loan, as well as separate aggregate amounts identifying the interest paid, the fees paid, and the amount paid against the principal balance.
- A description of each fee charged for the most recent preceding installment period.
- The payment amount, the due date for the payment to avoid additional fees, and the amount of any such fees.
- The lender’s or loan servicer’s address and toll-free phone number for repayment options, payment, and billing error purposes.
- A reminder of the borrower’s option to change repayment plans, a listing of the repayment plans available to the borrower, a link to the Department’s Website for more information on the repayment plans, and directions to the borrower on how to request a change in repayment plan.

These disclosures may be provided to a borrower based on the lender’s or loan servicer’s current system methodology and, therefore, may be disclosed at the loan, account, or borrower level.

[HEA §433(e)(1); §682.205(c)(3); Preamble to the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, Federal Register dated July 23, 2009, pp. 36571-36572; DCL GEN-08-12/FP-08-10]

Exception for Invalid Address

A lender is not required to send the disclosures listed above, including the bill or statement, if the lender does not have a valid address for the borrower. However, if the lender receives a valid address for the borrower before the borrower’s loan becomes 241 days delinquent, the lender must resume sending the required bill or statement (the lender is not required to resend previously undeliverable bills or statements), as well as any other disclosure information not previously provided.
[§682.205(j)]

Required Lender Disclosure for a Borrower Having Difficulty Making Payments

If a borrower notifies the lender that he or she is having difficulty making scheduled payments, the lender must provide, in simple and understandable terms, a description of each of the following:

- The repayment plans available to the borrower, including how the borrower can request a change in repayment plan.
- The requirements for obtaining a forbearance on a loan, including costs associated with the forbearance.
- The other options available to the borrower to avoid default, including any fees or costs associated with those options.

These disclosures are not required if the borrower’s difficulty has been resolved through contact or other communication between the lender and the borrower. (See Subsection 12.1.A for information regarding additional required lender disclosures during repayment.)

1. Policy 1298 (Batch 199), approved April 17, 2014
11.4.B
Deferment Documentation—Economic Hardship

If a borrower requests an economic hardship deferment, the lender should forward to the borrower the following common deferment form:

HRD
Economic Hardship Deferment Request

Documentation should include pay stubs, a copy of the borrower’s most recently filed federal tax return, or other official documents noting the borrower’s income. The borrower must provide at least one piece of supporting documentation for each source of income. Documentation may include paystubs, a copy of the borrower’s most recently filed federal tax return, a letter(s) from his or her employer(s) listing income, interest or bank statements, dividend statements, or other documentation may also be used to verify income. Unless the frequency is clearly indicated on the documentation, the borrower must write on the documentation how often he or she is receiving the income, for example, “twice per month” or “every other week” or provide that information verbally to the lender. If these forms of documentation are unavailable, the borrower must provide a signed statement explaining the income source(s) and giving the name and the address of the source(s). If the borrower is self employed, he or she may provide a signed statement explaining the projected monthly income from all sources; no additional documentation is required.

A borrower who qualifies for deferment based on his or her Peace Corps service is not required to submit income documentation, but must submit documentation from the Peace Corps showing that he or she is or will be serving as a volunteer.

11.4.C
Length of Deferment—Economic Hardship

The deferment begins on the date the condition entitling the borrower to the deferment first existed, as determined by the lender. The deferment ends on the date the condition establishing the borrower’s eligibility for the deferment ends. This deferment may be granted for periods of up to 1 year at a time and may be renewed for a total that, collectively, do not exceed 3 years. For a borrower who is serving as a volunteer in the Peace Corps, the deferment may be granted for the lesser of the borrower’s full term of service or the borrower’s remaining period of economic hardship deferment eligibility under the 3-year maximum. [HEA §428(b)(1)(M)(iv); §682.210(s)(6); DCL GEN-98-16]

11.4.D
Simplified Deferment Processing

A lender may grant an eligible borrower an economic hardship deferment based on information that the borrower has been granted an economic hardship deferment by another FFELP loan holder or the Department (for a Direct loan) for the same time period. The borrower must request the deferment either verbally or in writing but does not have to provide a completed economic hardship deferment form or the other required documentation listed in Subsection 11.4.B.

A borrower who is newly self employed may not be able to provide traditional documentation of income. In order for a newly self-employed borrower to qualify for an economic hardship deferment, the borrower must provide the lender with a self-certifying statement of projected monthly income from all sources. In addition, the borrower must provide documentation of the newly formed business and documentation of the borrower’s involvement in that business. Documentation that may be used for newly self-employed borrowers includes, but is not limited to:

- A statement from the borrower’s accountant.
- A copy of the Articles of Incorporation for the business venture.
- A copy of the Business Charter showing the borrower’s involvement.
- An application for a tax identification number.

1. Policy 1291 (Batch 197), approved January 16, 2014
If two individuals are jointly liable for repayment of a PLUS loan or Consolidation loan, a lender may grant forbearance on repayment of the loan only if the ability of each individual to make scheduled payments has been impaired based on the same or differing conditions—except in cases when one comaker has applied for a total and permanent disability loan discharge (see Subsection 11.20.F, Forbearance of a Loan for a Comaker during the TPD Conditional Period).

[$682.211(a)(3)$]

A consolidating lender that establishes more than a single loan servicing record for the subsidized, unsubsidized, and HEAL portions of the Consolidation loan, must grant a forbearance on the entire loan. The forbearance must be applied for the same period of time to each portion of the loan.

If a lender denies a borrower’s request for forbearance, the lender must document the reason for denial in the borrower’s file or the servicing history of the loan (see Subsection 3.4.A).

A lender may not charge an administrative or other fee in connection with granting forbearance on a loan. A lender also is prohibited from reporting to nationwide consumer reporting agencies any adverse information regarding the repayment status of a loan solely as a result of granting forbearance to the borrower.

[HEA §428(c)(3)(A)(iii)]

A lender should use forbearance as a tool to bring a delinquent or defaulted loan current. The lender should not grant any discretionary forbearance that will result in the borrower remaining delinquent. However, this restriction does not apply if, for example, the loan exits the forbearance with a delinquent status due to a nonsufficient funds (NSF) payment that was made before the forbearance was granted. For more information on granting a forbearance on a delinquent or defaulted loan, see Subsection 11.20.G.

[HEA §428(c)(3)]

11.20.A  Forbearance Types

There are four types of forbearance available to borrowers and, in some cases, endorsers:

- Administrative forbearance (see Section 11.21).
- Discretionary forbearance (see Section 11.22).
- Mandatory administrative forbearance (see Section 11.23).
- Mandatory forbearance (see Section 11.24).

Figure 11-2, the Forbearance Eligibility Chart, may help schools and lenders identify general information about discretionary, administrative, mandatory, and mandatory administrative forbearances, including situations in which these forbearance types may be used by a borrower and an endorser, if applicable. The chart also provides information about the length of the forbearance and general information about required documentation. For detailed information about each forbearance, see the applicable section.

11.20.B  Documentation Required for Authorized Forbearance

In cases where a forbearance agreement is required, a lender and a borrower or endorser may agree to the terms of the forbearance verbally or in writing. A lender that grants a forbearance based on a written agreement with the borrower or endorser may use any form or format that is acceptable to the guarantor, and the lender must retain a copy of the agreement. A lender that grants a forbearance based on a verbal agreement with the borrower or endorser must send a notice confirming the terms of the forbearance agreement to the borrower or endorser within 30 days of the date that agreement was made and record the forbearance terms in the borrower’s file. In order to grant a forbearance after the date of default based on either a verbal or a written agreement with the borrower or endorser, the lender must also obtain a new signed agreement to repay the debt or a written or verbal affirmation of the obligation to repay the debt (see Subsection 11.20.G). For each forbearance period, regardless of whether a written agreement is required, the lender must document in the borrower’s file or the loan’s servicing history the forbearance beginning and ending dates and the reason for granting forbearance.

[HEA §428(c)(3)(A) and (c)(10); §682.211(b)(1); §682.211(d); §682.414(a)(4)(ii)(G); §685.205(a)(8)]

11.20.F Forbearance of a Loan for a Comaker during the TPD Conditional Period

11.20.C Forbearance Length

With the exception of administrative and mandatory forbearances that are not subject to a maximum time frame or are In certain cases, forbearances are subject to other specific regulatory time frames (see Subsection 11.20.G and Sections 11.21, 11.23, and 11.24). If not otherwise regulated, a lender may grant a single discretionary forbearance for up to one year at a time if both the borrower or endorser and the lender agree. This one year includes any past and future forbearance months. For example, a forbearance that is granted for 3 months retroactively may extend only 9 months into the future.¹

Occasionally, a borrower’s temporary economic hardship will continue to prevent the borrower or endorser from resuming regularly scheduled loan payments after the first forbearance expires. If additional forbearance is warranted, the lender must reach a new agreement with the borrower either verbally or in writing. [§682.211(c)]

Federal regulations require that a single forbearance be granted for no longer than a 12-month interval. The Department has indicated that it does not interpret this provision of the regulations to prohibit a lender, in applying the 12-month maximum forbearance period, from granting forbearance for a retroactive as well as a prospective period as long as the period of each forbearance agreement does not exceed 12 months. As it relates to granting a forbearance to a borrower for a prospective period, a lender is expected to clarify the end date of the period requested by the borrower either verbally or in writing. [§682.202(b)]

11.20.D Payment of Interest during Forbearance

In cases when a forbearance agreement is required, the borrower and the lender must agree to the way in which the interest accruing during the forbearance will be paid. If interest during a period of deferment is forborne, the lender must notify the borrower at the time of the deferment that interest payments are to be forborne. If payments of interest are forborne, they may be capitalized. For more information on capitalizing interest, see Section 10.10. [§682.202(b)]

11.20.E Reporting Forbearances

Under the Department’s National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) reporting requirements, a lender must report forbearances to the guarantor, including the date each forbearance begins. When a forbearance ends, the lender must report the new loan status and the effective date. For more information on lender reporting, see Section 3.5.

11.20.F Forbearance of a Loan for a Comaker during the TPD Conditional Period

When one comaker of a joint Consolidation loan or a comade PLUS loan applies for a total and permanent disability (TPD) loan discharge, the forbearance eligibility requirements apply only to the non-disabled comaker during the conditional discharge period. The lender must ensure that the delinquency on a comade loan, if any, at the time the conditional discharge period begins does not worsen.

A lender may grant discretionary forbearance on the repayment of the entire loan if the ability of the non-disabled comaker to make payments is impaired during the conditional discharge period. The lender must ensure that the delinquency on a comade loan, if any, at the time the conditional discharge period begins does not worsen.

A lender may grant discretionary forbearance on the repayment of the entire loan if the ability of the non-disabled comaker to make payments is impaired during the conditional discharge period. The lender must ensure that the delinquency on a comade loan, if any, at the time the conditional discharge period begins does not worsen.

The lender must explore with the non-disabled comaker any other available options such as alternative repayment agreements, deferments, discretionary forbearance, or reduced-payment forbearance. As a last resort, the lender may apply an administrative forbearance to ensure that the loan does not become delinquent or that an existing delinquency does not increase during the conditional discharge period. The administrative forbearance may be applied only for the time period that the nondisabled

comaker is solely responsible for the loan’s repayment and may not begin earlier than the date the loan holder receives either the disabled comaker’s loan discharge application, or the notification from the guarantor that a loan discharge application was submitted to the guarantor, whichever is earlier. The administrative forbearance may not end later than the date the lender receives notification of the final discharge determination. (See Subsection 10.6.C for repayment options; Sections 11.2 to 11.19 for deferment information; Section 11.22 for information on discretionary forbearance; and Subsection 11.22.A for information on reduced-payment forbearance.)

11.20.G Forbearance of Delinquent Loans

A lender must not administratively forbear a delinquent borrower in cases where the borrower is delinquent before a mandatory forbearance or certain mandatory administrative forbearances. A lender should resolve any delinquencies that exist before these types of forbearance by working with the borrower to grant a discretionary forbearance. This requirement to resolve existing delinquency using a discretionary forbearance does not apply to mandatory administrative forbearances granted for military mobilization, local or national emergencies, or a designated disaster area (see Subsection 11.23.B for more information).

11.20.H Forbearance of Defaulted Loans

11.20.G Forbearance of Defaulted Loans

A lender may grant a discretionary forbearance to a borrower or endorser to resolve a delinquency and permit the resumption of payments after the date of default only if the forbearance is granted prior to the lender’s receipt of the claim payment. In order to grant a forbearance after the date of default, the lender must obtain a verbal or written agreement regarding the terms of the discretionary forbearance, and a new signed agreement. The lender must also obtain a written or verbal affirmation of the obligation to repay the debt. At the lender’s discretion, the signed agreement to repay the debt or written affirmation of the obligation to repay the debt may be included in the context of a written forbearance agreement or may be separate.

An affirmation in this case means an acknowledgement of the loan by the borrower or endorser in a legally binding manner. The form of the affirmation may include, but is not limited to, one of the following:

- A new signed repayment agreement or schedule, or another form of signed agreement to repay the debt;
- A verbal acknowledgment and agreement to repay the debt documented by the lender in the borrower’s file and confirmed by the lender in a notice to the borrower or endorser; or
- A payment made on the loan.

If the forbearance is based on the borrower’s or endorser’s verbal request and affirmation of the obligation to repay the debt, all of the following provisions apply:

- The forbearance period is limited to 120 days.
- A forbearance based on a verbal request and affirmation of the debt must not be granted consecutively.
- The lender must verbally review with the borrower or endorser the terms of the forbearance, including the consequences of interest capitalization, and all other repayment options available to the borrower or endorser.

If the lender grants a discretionary forbearance based on a verbal agreement and affirmation of the debt, the lender must record the forbearance terms and the affirmation of the debt in the borrower’s file, and the lender must send, within 30 days of that agreement, a notice to the borrower or endorser confirming the terms of the forbearance agreement and affirmation of the debt as well as information on all other repayment options available to the borrower or endorser. (See Section 11.22 for more information about granting a discretionary forbearance.) The lender is not required to obtain a new signed agreement, an affirmation of the obligation to repay the debt if an administrative forbearance is granted in conjunction with an authorized deferment that begins prior to the 270th day of delinquency. \([§682.211(b) and (d); §685.205(a)(8)]\)

11.20.H Borrower Contact during Forbearance

When a lender grants a forbearance, the lender must provide to the borrower or the endorser, as applicable, information to assist the borrower or endorser in understanding the effect of interest capitalization on the loan’s principal balance, and the total amount of interest to be paid over the life of the loan.

If the lender and borrower or endorser agree verbally to a discretionary forbearance, the lender must record the forbearance terms in the borrower’s file and send, within 30 days of that agreement, a notice to the borrower or endorser confirming the terms of the forbearance agreement.

During the forbearance period, the lender must contact the borrower or endorser not less than once every 180 days. The lender must inform the borrower or endorser of all the following:

- The obligation to repay the loan.
- The outstanding balance of principal and interest on the loan.
- That interest will accrue on the loan for the entire forbearance period.
- The amount of interest accrued since the last forbearance notice was provided to the borrower or endorser.
- The amount of interest that will be capitalized on the loan, projected as of the date of the notice, and the date that the capitalization will occur.
- The borrower’s or endorser’s option to pay the interest before it is capitalized.
- That the borrower or endorser may opt to discontinue the forbearance at any time.

This notification requirement does not apply to the postponement of interest payments during a deferment period. [HEA §428(c)(3); §682.211(e); DCL GEN-08-12/FP-08-10]

11.20.J Establishing Repayment after Forbearance

11.20.I Establishing Repayment after Forbearance

A borrower’s first payment due date after an authorized forbearance generally must be no later than 60 days after the date that the forbearance expires. For a Stafford, PLUS, or SLS loan, federal regulations permit the lender to extend the first due date an additional 30 days beyond the standard 60-day limit, if the extension is necessary to permit the lender to comply with requirements that the repayment disclosure be sent to the borrower no less than 30 days before the first payment on the loan is due.

A borrower must be notified of any interest capitalized due to the forbearance. The notice should include the new principal balance and any other repayment term changes (such as a new monthly payment amount) resulting from the interest being capitalized. The lender may develop its own format for disclosing such information or may use a repayment schedule and disclosure form provided by a guarantor. For more information on disclosure of repayment terms, see Section 10.7. [§682.205(c); §682.209(a)(3)(ii)(B)]

Policy 1295 (Batch 198), approved January 16, 2014

Note: For detailed information about each forbearance situation, refer to the applicable subsection.

1. Lender must document the borrower’s request, the reason for the forbearance, and the terms of the forbearance agreement.
2. For borrowers only.
3. A request and supporting documentation from the authorized official(s) indicating the beginning and ending dates, and a verbal or written agreement are required.
4. A request is required.
5. A request and supporting documentation of monthly income and monthly payments on Title IV education loan obligations, and a verbal or written agreement are required.
6. Lender must notify the borrower (or individual or endorser, if applicable) and document the beginning and ending dates and reason for the forbearance in borrower history record.
7. Notice from the Department or guarantor is required.
8. Documentation showing borrower is subject to a military mobilization is required.
9. For military service that begins on or after October 1, 2007, or includes that date.
10. Lender must notify borrower forbearance has been granted; notice must inform borrower of option to cancel forbearance and continue paying on the PLUS loan.
11.21.G Delinquency before a Deferment or Certain an Authorized Period of Forbearances

A lender may process an administrative forbearance to resolve an outstanding delinquency that precedes a deferment or an authorized period of forbearance any of the events listed below. The forbearance may be granted from the date on which the borrower’s delinquency began and may be extended through the day before the first date on which the borrower is eligible for the deferment or forbearance:

- A deferment.
- An administrative forbearance granted due to a military mobilization, a local or national emergency, or a natural disaster (see Subsection 11.21.N).
- A mandatory administrative forbearance granted due to exceptional circumstances—a military mobilization, a local or national emergency, or a designated disaster area (see Subsection 11.23.B).

[§682.211(f)(2); §682.211(f)(12); §682.211(i)(2); §685.205(a)(8)]

11.21.H Delinquency after a Deferment or Mandatory Forbearance

A lender may grant an administrative forbearance for a period of delinquency that may remain after a borrower ends a period of deferment or mandatory forbearance. The administrative forbearance may be applied to resolve any delinquency that exists on the date the deferment or mandatory forbearance ends, regardless of when the delinquency originally occurred, and may be extended until the date the borrower’s next payment is due. For example, if the lender properly grants a borrower’s request for a deferment or mandatory forbearance where the end date is in the past or if the borrower will still have a period of delinquency at the conclusion of a deferment or mandatory forbearance, a lender may process an administrative forbearance to resolve the outstanding delinquency. The lender may apply the administrative forbearance concurrently with the application of the deferment or mandatory forbearance and need not wait until the deferment or mandatory forbearance ends before applying the administrative forbearance.

[§682.211(f)(10)]

1. Policy 1295 (Batch 198), approved January 16, 2014

11.21.I Delinquency under Income-Based Repayment (IBR)

If the lender received the borrower’s income information more than 10 days after the specified annual deadline and the borrower’s monthly payment amount is recalculated to the permanent-standard amount, the lender may grant an administrative forbearance with respect to payments that are overdue or would be due at the time the new calculated income-based monthly payment amount is determined only if the new income-based monthly payment amount is zero or is less than the borrower’s previously calculated income-based monthly payment amount. The lender may not capitalize interest that accrues during the portion of this administrative forbearance period that covers payments due after the end of the prior annual payment period. (See Subsection 10.8.D for information on income-based repayment plans.)

[§682.211(f)(16); §682.215(e)(9); §685.221(e)(9)]

11.21.J Documentation Collection and Processing

The lender may grant a forbearance for a period not to exceed 60 days if the lender determines it is warranted in order to collect and process supporting documentation following a borrower’s request for a deferment, forbearance, change in repayment plan, or loan consolidation. A new administrative forbearance period for each occurrence may be granted by the lender. The lender must document the reasons for granting each forbearance in the borrower’s loan history.

[§682.211(f)(11)]

The lender must not capitalize interest accrued during this period of administrative forbearance unless it receives documentation or information that results in the granting of a deferment or other forbearance type that would be concurrent with this period in which case capitalization is permitted.

[HEA §428(c)(3)(D); HEA §428H(e)(7)]

11.21.K Forgiveness under Income-Based Repayment (IBR)

The lender may grant a forbearance for a period not to exceed 60 days in order to collect and process documentation in order to determine a borrower is eligible for loan forgiveness under the income-based repayment plan. If so granted, the lender must notify the borrower that
11.21.U Repayment Plan Change

In addition, after the lender receives the discharge application, the lender may grant another administrative forbearance to cover the period needed by the guarantor to determine the borrower’s eligibility for an unpaid refund discharge.

The lender must notify the borrower or endorser that a forbearance was granted for any of the above periods. See Subsection 13.8.H for more information on unpaid refund discharges. [§682.402(l); §685.216(e)]

11.21.U Repayment Plan Change

The lender may grant an administrative forbearance to cover a period of delinquency that exists at the time a borrower chooses a different repayment plan— for example, from standard to income-based. [§682.211(f)(14)]

11.22 Discretionary Forbearance

A lender is encouraged to grant a discretionary forbearance to assist a borrower or endorser in fulfilling the repayment obligations on the loan and to help prevent default. The lender may grant forbearance based on either a written or verbal agreement with the borrower. (See Subsection 11.20.B for more information about a lender’s responsibilities when a forbearance is based on a verbal agreement.) Situations in which the lender may choose to grant forbearance include, but are not limited to:

- The borrower has personal problems (such as economic hardship) that are temporarily affecting the borrower’s or endorser’s ability to make scheduled payments.
- The borrower is unemployed but has already received the maximum unemployment deferment.
- The borrower has had poor health or a prolonged illness or disability but does not meet applicable disability deferment criteria.
- The borrower is attending school or is a full-time volunteer in an organization and the school or organization does not meet the appropriate deferment criteria.
- The borrower or endorser wants to change the payment amount or payment due date on a loan that requires the lender to bring the loan current first or forgo some due diligence activities (see Subsection 10.11.C for information on changing due dates).

If the discretionary forbearance is based on a verbal agreement, the lender must send, within 30 days of that agreement, a notice to the borrower or endorser confirming the terms of the forbearance. Certain rules apply to verbal discretionary forbearance requests and affirmation of the debt received after default but prior to claim payment (see Subsection 11.20.G).¹

11.22.A Reduced-Payment Forbearance

One type of discretionary forbearance a lender may grant is a reduced-payment forbearance. Under this type of discretionary forbearance, the borrower or endorser and the lender agree to establish temporary payment terms for the duration of the forbearance that may be inconsistent with the minimum annual payment amount. This agreement may be verbal or written.

When establishing the temporary payment terms for the period of forbearance, the lender and borrower or endorser may agree to a payment amount that is greater than, equal to, or less than the amount of accruing interest.

As with other types of discretionary forbearance, a lender must obtain a signed forbearance agreement that establishes the terms of the forbearance or document the terms of any verbal agreement. If the reduced-payment forbearance agreement is verbal, the lender must document the borrower’s request, the reason for the forbearance, and the terms of the forbearance agreement. The lender must also send, within 30 days of the agreement, a notice to the borrower or endorser confirming the terms of the forbearance agreement. In addition to other applicable forbearance notification requirements (see Section 11.20), the lender must provide the following information regarding the reduced-payment forbearance in its notification to the borrower or endorser:

- The required payment amount during the reduced-payment forbearance.
- The address to which payments must be sent.
- The consequences, if any, of delinquency on the payments required during the forbearance period.

Student Loan Debt Burden

The lender must grant forbearance in increments of up to one year, for periods that collectively do not exceed three years, if the borrower or endorser is currently obligated to make payments on Title IV loans and the amount of those payments each month—or a proportional share, if the payments are due less frequently than monthly—is collectively equal to or greater than 20% of the borrower’s or endorser’s total monthly income.

Before granting a forbearance to a borrower or endorser, in this case, the lender must require the borrower or endorser to submit at least the following documentation:

- Evidence of the amount of the most recent total monthly gross income received by the borrower or endorser from employment and other sources. The borrower must provide at least one piece of supporting documentation for each source of income. Documentation may include paystubs, a copy of the borrower’s most recently filed federal tax return, a letter(s) from his or her employer(s) listing income, interest or bank statements, dividend statements, or other documentation may also be used to verify income. Unless the frequency is clearly indicated on the documentation, the borrower must write on the documentation how often he or she is receiving the income, for example, “twice per month” or “every other week” or provide that information verbally to the lender. If these forms of documentation are unavailable, the borrower must provide a signed statement explaining the income source(s) and giving the name and the address of the source(s). If the borrower is self employed, he or she may provide a signed statement explaining the projected monthly income from all sources; no additional documentation is required. ¹

- Evidence of the amount of the monthly payments owed by the borrower or endorser to other entities for the most recent month for the borrower’s or endorser’s Title IV loans. [§682.211(h)(2) and (4)]

11.24.B
Medical or Dental Internship or Residency

A lender must grant forbearance to a qualified borrower who meets either of the following criteria:

- The borrower has exhausted his or her eligibility for a medical or dental internship/residency deferment.

- The borrower’s promissory note does not provide for a medical or dental internship/residency deferment.

Eligibility requirements are the same as for a borrower who has requested a medical or dental internship/residency deferment (see Section 11.7), except that the borrower does not need to be a new borrower before July 1, 1993, to qualify for forbearance. In addition, the documentation requirements are the same for both deferment and forbearance (see Subsection 11.7.A). A lender must grant forbearance in 12-month increments unless the actual period during which a borrower is eligible is less than 12 months. See Subsection 11.20.H for information regarding notices that the lender must send when granting forbearance and during the forbearance period.

For a medical or dental internship or residency, the forbearance must cover one of the following:

- The length of time remaining in the borrower’s medical or dental internship or residency that must be successfully completed before the borrower may begin professional practice or service.

- The length of time the borrower is serving in a medical or dental internship or residency program leading to a degree or certificate awarded by an institution of higher education, a hospital, or a health care facility offering postgraduate training.

For a borrower in an internship or residency that is not in the medical or dental field, the borrower may qualify for a mandatory forbearance based on the criterion that the borrower’s debt payments exceed his or her monthly income (see Subsection 11.24.A) or for a discretionary forbearance (see Section 11.22).

11.24.C National Service, Loan Forgiveness, Department of Defense Repayment, or Active Military State Duty

The lender must grant forbearance in yearly increments—or a lesser period equal to the actual period during which the borrower is eligible—for any period during which the borrower meets one of the following criteria:

- Serves in a national service position for which the borrower receives a national service educational award under the National and Community Service Trust Act of 1993 (AmeriCorps). Before granting a forbearance to a borrower or endorser under this program, the lender must require the borrower or endorser to submit documentation of the beginning and ending dates for the period the borrower is serving in a national service position.

- Performs service that would qualify the borrower for partial loan repayment under the Student Loan Repayment Programs administered by the U.S. Department of Defense authorized under 10 U.S.C. 2171, 2173, 2174 or any Department of Defense programs for repayment of student loans. Before granting a forbearance to a borrower or endorser under this program, the lender must require the borrower or endorser to submit documentation of the beginning and ending dates for which the U.S. Department of Defense considers the borrower to be eligible for a partial repayment of the borrower’s loan under the Student Loan Repayment Programs.

- Maintains eligibility for loan forgiveness under the Teacher Loan Forgiveness Program and, at the time of each annual request, the lender believes that the cancellation amount will satisfy the anticipated outstanding loan balance at the time of the expected cancellation. Before granting a forbearance to a borrower, the lender must require the borrower to submit the following:
  - Documentation showing the beginning and anticipated ending dates of the period during which the borrower expects to perform the qualifying teacher service for that year (see Subsection 13.9.A).
  - A self-certifying statement of the borrower’s intent to satisfy the teacher loan forgiveness requirements.

- Serves on active military state duty as a member of the National Guard (including a member in retired status) during a time when the governor activates National Guard personnel for active state duty for a period of more than 30 consecutive days, and the Guard’s activities are paid with state or federal funds. The forbearance is for a borrower who qualifies for a post-active duty student deferment, but who does not qualify for a military service deferment or other deferment while engaged in active military state duty (see Section 11.12 for more information on the post-active duty student deferment). The forbearance begins on the day after the end of the grace period for a Stafford loan that has not entered repayment, or begins on the day after the end of the in-school deferment for a FFELP loan in repayment.

Note: Lenders may offer discretionary forbearance to borrowers who do not qualify for mandatory forbearance.

11.24.D Applying a Mandatory Forbearance Retroactively

A lender may grant mandatory forbearance retroactively, but single periods of forbearance may not exceed 12 months. The forbearance ends on the date that is 12 months after the date on which it began, or the date on which the borrower’s eligibility ends, whichever is earlier.

1. Policy 1294 (Batch 198), approved January 16, 2014
Chapter 12 identifies the minimum due diligence requirements to which lenders must adhere in order to retain the guarantee on the loan. Due diligence is the term used to describe the required activities and timelines applicable to the collection of FFELP loans.

Compliance with due diligence requirements is crucial; failure to meet these requirements within their respective time frames may result in an inability to collect the loan, rejection of a lender’s claim, cancellation of the guarantee on the loan, or a reduction of the interest that would normally be paid at the time of claim purchase. Except as detailed in Subsection 12.4.B and as noted otherwise throughout this chapter, due diligence requirements described in this chapter are for loans with monthly repayment obligations. Lenders with loans with repayment obligations less frequent than monthly should contact their guarantor with questions regarding the unique servicing requirements for these loans. (See Section 1.5 for guarantor contact information.)

The lender must adhere to the federal requirements to ensure prompt collection of any delinquent loan payments and to preserve the guarantee on the loan. These requirements preempt any state law—including state statutes, regulations, or rules—that would conflict with or hinder a lender’s satisfaction of the requirements or frustrate the purposes of these requirements. However, these requirements do not preempt the provisions of the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) that provide relief to a borrower while a lender determines the legal enforceability of a loan after receiving a valid identity theft report or notification from a nationwide consumer reporting agency of an alleged identity theft. [$682.411(o)]

Any reference to a borrower in this chapter also refers to any applicable comaker—one of two PLUS borrowers who are jointly and severally liable for repayment (as applicable to a PLUS loan made prior to April 16, 1999) or one of two Consolidation loan borrowers who are jointly and severally liable for repayment (as applicable to a Consolidation loan made from an application received by the consolidating lender prior to July 1, 2006). Therefore, due diligence activities required for the borrower are also required for the comaker. For example, if the lender is required to send a letter at a certain point of delinquency, it must send the same letter to both borrowers. Failure to perform collection activities on one or both comakers is a violation of due diligence provisions and will result in interest penalties or the loss of the loan’s guarantee. [$682.507(a)(2)]

Endorser requirements differ from those for borrowers and comakers, and are identified in each applicable section and highlighted in Subsection 12.4.E.

Collection Philosophies, Goals, and Minimum Standards

The lender’s collection practices must focus on preventing the default of its delinquent and ineligible borrower loans. The lender should develop a systematic and thorough approach to collecting on its loans, using, at a minimum, the due diligence standards prescribed in this chapter. In addition, the lender may use its own consumer loan collection practices. Lenders are strongly encouraged to develop standards that are in the best interest of both borrowers and the FFELP.

12.1.A
Lender Disclosure Requirements

When a borrower is 60 days delinquent, the lender must provide a notice with all of the following information in simple and understandable terms:

- The date on which the loan will default if no payment is made.
- As of the date of the notice, the minimum payment the borrower must make to avoid default, including the payment amount needed either to bring the loan current or to pay the loan in full.
- A description of borrower options to avoid default, including a description of, and the requirements for obtaining a deferment or a forbearance and an explanation of any relevant fees or costs associated with such options.
- Loan discharge options for which the borrower may be eligible.
- Additional resources of which the lender is aware from which the borrower may receive additional advice and assistance on loan repayment, including nonprofit organizations, advocates, and counselors (including the Student Loan Ombudsman of the U.S. Department of Education).
The lender must provide this disclosure notice within five business days of the date the borrower becomes 60 days delinquent, unless the lender has sent a similar notice to that borrower within the preceding 120 days. (See Section 10.12 for information regarding additional required lender disclosures during repayment.)

Exception for Invalid Address

A lender is not required to send the disclosures listed above if the lender does not have a valid address for the borrower. However, if the lender receives a valid address for the borrower before the borrower’s loan becomes 241 days delinquent, the lender must send the required information not previously provided.

12.2 Situations Requiring Collection Activities

The collection activities that are known as “due diligence” in the FFELP must be performed in the following situations:

- A borrower is delinquent in making payments.
- A lender is unable to determine the address of a borrower whose loan is delinquent.
- A borrower is determined to be ineligible for a loan (due to the borrower’s or student’s error).

A loan is considered delinquent if the lender has not received a borrower’s payment by the day after the payment due date. A lender must ensure that the due date of the first payment is established according to the requirements described in Section 10.5.

12.3 Factors Relating to Collection Activities

There are a number of factors related to servicing a FFELP loan that lenders must consider in conducting collection activities. The following subsections identify some of these factors.

12.3.A Bankruptcy Petition Filing

Lenders must suspend collection activities upon receipt of official notice that the borrower has filed a bankruptcy petition.

Some guarantors permit the suspension of collection activities in response to “unofficial” notification of a borrower’s bankruptcy filing. These provisions are noted in Appendix C.

See Subsection 13.8.A for more information regarding acceptable notifications with respect to a borrower’s filing of a bankruptcy petition.

12.3.B Deferment of Loans in Delinquency or Default

If, at any time during the performance of collection activities, a lender learns that a borrower may be eligible for a deferment, the lender must explain the conditions for obtaining the deferment and make the deferment option available. A lender must grant a deferment to a borrower whose delinquent loan is not in default if the borrower is eligible for the deferment. See Subsection 11.1.F for more information about deferment of delinquent loans.

A lender must grant a deferment to a borrower whose loan is in default if the borrower’s deferment eligibility began before the date of default. A lender may grant a deferment to a borrower whose loan is in default if the borrower’s deferment eligibility begins after the date of default and the borrower makes payment arrangements acceptable to the lender to resolve the default prior to the payment of a default claim by a guarantor. See Subsection 11.1.G for more information about deferment of defaulted loans.

Collection activities are no longer required if a deferment, or the combination of a deferment and other actions (e.g., forbearance or payments), brings the loan current. If the loan remains delinquent, see Subsections 12.4.A and 12.4.B for more information on collection activities required for a rolling delinquency.

Chapter 13: Claim Filing, Discharge, and Forgiveness—June 2014

13.7 Rehabilitation of Defaulted FFELP Loans

previously rehabilitated on or after August 14, 2008, is eligible for rehabilitation.
[HEA §428F(a)(5); §682.405(a)(1); §685.211(f); Federal Register dated October 29, 2009, p. 55979; DCL GEN-08-12/FP-08-10]

▲ Contact the guarantor for information about its rehabilitation program. See Section 1.5 for contact information.

To rehabilitate a FFELP loan, a borrower must make nine, on-time (i.e., received within 20 days of the due date), full monthly payments to the guarantor or its contracted vendor during a period of 10 consecutive months. Payments must be made voluntarily by the borrower and must be equal to or greater than the amount determined to be reasonable and affordable. Payments obtained by state offsets or federal Treasury offsets, wage garnishment, trustee payments, or income or asset execution will not satisfy requirements for rehabilitation.
[HEA §428F(a)(1)(A); §682.405(a)(2); §685.211(f)(1)]

▲ See Section H.4 for information about a statutory or regulatory waiver authorized by the HEROES Act that may impact these requirements.

The nine payments must be received during the 10-month period immediately preceding the rehabilitation of the defaulted loan. Payments will be considered voluntary if made directly by the borrower. A lump sum prepayment of future installments cannot be used to satisfy the requirement that the borrower make nine payments during a period of 10 consecutive months. If the borrower fails to send nine payments on time during the 10-month period in which payments are required for rehabilitation, he or she must begin the entire cycle again. A new cycle will begin from the time a new, on-time, voluntary, reasonable and affordable payment is received—regardless of any prepayments of future installments the borrower may have made.

The guarantor will make the determination of what constitutes a reasonable and affordable payment based on each borrower’s financial circumstances. Factors to be considered include the borrower’s monthly income (and that of his or her spouse, if applicable), the monthly expenses of the borrower and any spouse or dependents, and the unpaid balance on all FFELP loans held by other holders. If the borrower’s reasonable and affordable payment is determined to be less than $50 or the amount of the accruing interest on the borrower’s loan(s), the guarantor will document the basis for the determination and retain it in the borrower’s file, which will be forwarded to the purchasing lender.
[§682.405(b)(i)]

A guarantor will assist a borrower in securing the purchase of each defaulted loan by an eligible lender only after:

- The borrower satisfies his or her obligation to make nine payments during a period of 10 consecutive months, as prescribed above.
- The borrower authorizes the guarantor to capitalize collection costs.
- The borrower requests assistance in obtaining a rehabilitation repurchase.
- The guarantor determines that the borrower is a good candidate for rehabilitation. A borrower may not be considered a good candidate for rehabilitation if he or she will be required to make monthly payments after the rehabilitation that are considerably higher than the amount determined to be reasonable and affordable for the borrower.

If the guarantor is unable to secure a lender, the borrower will be responsible for obtaining an eligible lender to purchase his or her defaulted loan(s).

The guarantor or its contracted vendor acting on its behalf will notify the borrower of repayment terms, including what has been determined to be the reasonable and affordable payment amount. If the borrower’s financial circumstances change after the determination, the borrower may request that the repayment terms be adjusted. The borrower must include documentation substantiating his or her request for a recalculation of the reasonable and affordable payment amount previously established.
[§682.405(b)(1)(iii)]

▲ Within 30 days of receiving notification of the rehabilitation from the guarantor, the prior holder of the loan must request that any nationwide consumer reporting agency to which the default status or other equivalent record was reported, remove the default status or other equivalent record from the borrower’s credit history.
[HEA §428F(a)(1)(A); §682.405(a); §682.405(b)(3)(ii); §685.211(f)(1); DCL GEN-08-12/FP-08-10]

▲ Contact the guarantor for information about its process for lender notification of a rehabilitated loan. See Section 1.5 for contact information.

1. Policy 1302 (Batch 199), approved April 17, 2014
If a borrower files a petition for undue hardship (or adversary complaint), the lender must file a claim within 15 days of receiving the petition or within 15 days of the date the guarantor provides the lender with the bankruptcy information and instructs the lender to file a claim, whichever is earlier. If the lender receives an extension of time from the bankruptcy court for filing a response to the undue hardship petition (adversary complaint), the claim must be filed no less than 25 days before the expiration of that extended period or within 15 days of the date the guarantor provides the lender with the bankruptcy information and instructs the lender to file a claim, whichever is later.

Failure to submit a dischargeable bankruptcy claim by the end of the claim filing deadline will result in permanent cancellation of the guarantee on the loan—unless the lender can demonstrate that the bankruptcy action has been concluded and that the loan was not discharged or that the bankruptcy action in which the loan was originally discharged has been reversed. If this is the case, the lender need not cure the violation but must return the loan to the appropriate status and resume servicing activities. If the loan was 270 days or more delinquent at the time the borrower filed bankruptcy, the lender may treat the loan as a default. The lender may file a default claim within 90 days of being notified of the bankruptcy action’s conclusion or reversal or by the 360th day of delinquency, whichever is earlier. The claim, if purchased, will be subject to an interest penalty, and the lender will be required to repay all interest benefits and special allowance payments for amounts received or otherwise payable from the date on which the loan should have been filed as a bankruptcy claim through the date on which the lender received notice that the loan was not dischargeable or that the discharge had been reversed.

If a lender incurred due diligence violations or timely filing violations that resulted in cancellation of the guarantee, and those violations remained uncorrected as of the date it received notification of the bankruptcy filing, the lender may not file a bankruptcy claim. These violations cannot be cured—unless the debt is not discharged at the conclusion of the bankruptcy action, in which case the lender may attempt to cure the violations after the loan is returned to a repayment status.

1. Policy 1301 (Batch 199), approved April 17, 2014
In most cases, to qualify for a closed school loan discharge, a borrower must complete, certify, and submit to his or her lender or guarantor the Loan Discharge Application: School Closure form approved by the Department. The borrower may be eligible to have a loan discharged if he or she meets all the following criteria:

- The borrower (or student for whom a parent obtained a PLUS loan) received any part of the proceeds of a FFELP loan on or after January 1, 1986, to attend a school that later closed.

- The borrower (or student) did not complete the program of study at the school for which the loan was obtained because the school closed while the student was enrolled or on an approved leave of absence, or the student withdrew within 90-120 days of the school’s closing. The Department may extend the 120-day period due to exceptional circumstances related to a school’s closing.

The Department will determine whether an exceptional circumstance exists on a case-by-case basis. [§682.402(d)(1)(i); §685.214(c)(1)(B)]

- The borrower (or student) did not complete—and is not currently in the process of completing—the same or a similar program of study through a teach-out at another school, by transferring to another school all or a portion of the academic credits or clock hours earned at the closed school, or by benefiting by any other means from the training provided by the closed school.

Additionally, lenders must note the following regarding loans eligible for closed school loan discharge:

- Loan discharge is not restricted to loans made for attendance at an eligible school that closed. If an ineligible school or branch certified FFELP loan applications under an eligible school identification number, and the ineligible school or branch subsequently closed, those loans also may qualify for discharge.

- A legally enforceable loan that has lost reinsurance as a result of a due diligence violation is eligible for discharge and claim payment if the borrower meets all discharge requirements. In processing such claims, a guarantor will not assess penalties for the due diligence violations.

If a loan discharge is approved, the discharge cancels the obligation of the borrower to repay the outstanding principal, accrued interest, collection costs, and late fees on all eligible loans made for the student’s enrollment in the program of study being pursued when the school closed. It also qualifies the borrower for reimbursement of any amount paid voluntarily or through forced collection on the amount discharged.

[HEA §437(c); §682.402(d)(2); §685.212(d); §685.214(b)(1)]

The guarantor or the Department may initiate the discharge process if either determines that the borrower is eligible for discharge based on information in its possession. If, however, the borrower initiates the process by requesting a discharge based on a school closure, the borrower must complete, certify, and submit to the lender or guarantor the Loan Discharge Application: School Closure form. Through submission of this loan discharge application, the borrower:

- Agrees to provide, as requested, other reasonably available true and correct documentation that demonstrates the borrower’s eligibility for discharge.

- Agrees to cooperate with the Department or its designee in any enforcement action or attempt to recover discharged loan amounts, and to transfer and relinquish to the Department any right to a refund on a discharged loan.

- States whether the student has made a claim with respect to the school’s closing with any third party, such as the holder of a performance bond or tuition recovery program. If so, the borrower must disclose in the discharge application the amount of any payment received by the borrower (or student) or credited to the loan obligation.

In some cases, the guarantor will send a loan discharge application to the lender. The lender will then forward the discharge application to the borrower according to the requirements outlined in this subsection. In other cases, a guarantor may send the loan discharge application directly to a potentially eligible borrower and notify the lender of this action. In such cases, the guarantor also may have the borrower return the application directly to the guarantor for a determination of eligibility. The guarantor will then notify the lender of the borrower’s eligibility or ineligibility for discharge of the loan.

1. Policy 1299 (Batch 200), approved June 19, 2014
Claim Payment

The claim payment amount includes the sum of the remaining principal balance and interest accrued on the loan, unpaid collection costs incurred by the lender and applied to the borrower’s account within 30 days of the date those costs were actually incurred, and unpaid interest up to the date the lender should have filed the claim.

In the case of a partial discharge of a Consolidation loan, the claim payment includes the amount specified in the preceding paragraph for the portion of the Consolidation loan attributable to the eligible victim or eligible public servant.

The amount payable on an approved claim includes the unpaid interest that accrues during each of the following periods:

- During the period before the claim is filed, not to exceed 60 days from the date the lender determines that the borrower qualifies for a discharge.
- During a period not to exceed 30 days following the date the lender receives a claim returned by the guarantor for additional documentation necessary for the claim to be approved by the guarantor.
- During the period required by the guarantor to approve the claim and to authorize payment or to return the claim to the lender for additional documentation, not to exceed 90 days.

Notifying the Borrower and Any Endorser

After being notified that the guarantor has paid a discharge claim, the lender must notify the guarantor that the loan has been discharged, or partially discharged in the case of a Consolidation loan. Except in the case of a partially discharged Consolidation loan, the lender must return to the sender any payments received by the lender after the date the guarantor paid the discharge claim and notify the borrower and any endorser that there is no further obligation to repay the loan(s).

13.8.G Total and Permanent Disability

Note: See Section 5.5 for more information about eligibility requirements that a borrower must meet in order for the borrower to receive a new loan after he or she has received a loan discharge due to total and permanent disability.

The lender must refer to the Department any borrower or borrower’s representative who asserts that the borrower is totally and permanently disabled. The Department will notify the lender if the borrower notifies the Department of their intent to apply for a total and permanent disability discharge and will instruct the lender to suspend collection activity for a period not to exceed 120 days. The Department will also notify the lender if it receives a loan discharge application, and will instruct the lender to suspend collection activities pending the Department’s review of the application. The lender must notify the guarantor that the borrower or some party to the loan has applied for total and permanent disability discharge and that the discharge application is under review. A lender must report to the guarantor its receipt of these TPD review notices at least monthly.

A borrower typically is not eligible for discharge of a loan that has already been paid in full when the Department receives the borrower’s total and permanent disability loan discharge application.

A total and permanent disability discharge request based on a determination by the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) or the Social Security Administration (SSA) has different eligibility criteria than one that is not based on a VA or SSA determination, as applicable, as outlined below.

Note: References to “standard” total and permanent disability in Subsection 13.8.G include both the SSA total and permanent disability determinations and the physician certification determinations.
The school offers an associate, baccalaureate, graduate, or professional degree, and its program completion rate is 70% or more. §668.194(a)(1)

The school does not offer an associate, baccalaureate, graduate, or professional degree, and its job placement rate is 44% or more. §668.194(a)(2)

The components and formulas for calculating the school’s low-income rate, completion rate, and placement rate are fairly stated in all material respects. §668.194(b) through (d)

A school appealing on the basis of an economically disadvantaged student population must submit its management’s written assertions as described in the Cohort Default Rate Guide, within 30 days after receiving the official cohort default rate notice. The auditor’s opinion must be submitted to the Department within 60 days after receiving the notice. Detailed instructions for this appeal process can be found in the Cohort Default Rate Guide and federal regulations. §668.194(f); Cohort Default Rate Guide

§668.193(c) and (f); §668.205; Cohort Default Rate Guide

Economically Disadvantaged Population Appeals

If a school is subject to loss of its FFELP, FDLP, or Federal Pell Grant Program eligibility due to high cohort default rates but can successfully demonstrate that it serves an economically disadvantaged student population, the school may submit this type of appeal if an independent auditor certifies that the school’s low-income rate is two-thirds or more and that either of the following conditions exist: §668.194(a)]

- The school offers an associate, baccalaureate, graduate, or professional degree, and its program completion rate is 70% or more.
- The school does not offer an associate, baccalaureate, graduate, or professional degree, and its job placement rate is 44% or more.

The components and formulas for calculating the school’s low-income rate, completion rate, and placement rate are fairly stated in all material respects. §668.194(b) through (d)

A school appealing on the basis of an economically disadvantaged student population must submit its management’s written assertions as described in the Cohort Default Rate Guide, within 30 days after receiving the official cohort default rate notice. The auditor’s opinion must be submitted to the Department within 60 days after receiving the notice. Detailed instructions for this appeal process can be found in the Cohort Default Rate Guide and federal regulations. §668.194(f); Cohort Default Rate Guide

Participation Rate Index (PRI) Appeals

The PRI puts into perspective the impact of the school’s cohort default rate on the federal fiscal interest. Thus, a low PRI indicates that the overall impact of a school’s students’ defaults is not significant in terms of federal dollars. (See Section 16.1 for information regarding the calculation of the PRI.) A school that is subject to a loss of FFELP, FDLP, or Federal Pell Grant Program eligibility may use the PRI appeal based on either any one of the following conditions:

- The school has one cohort default rate over 40% and the PRI for that cohort’s fiscal year is less than or equal to 0.06015 0.0832. §668.195(a)(1); §668.204(c)(1)(i)]
- The school has three consecutive two-year cohort default rates of 25% or more and the PRI for any of the three cohorts’ fiscal years is less than or equal to 0.0375. [HEA §435(A)(8); §668.195(a)(2)]

Notes:
1. Stafford Nonsubsidized and FISL Nonsubsidized loans disbursed prior to 10-1-1981 are included within SF loan types.
2. Loans disbursed prior to 10-17-1986 and unable to distinguish from PLUS (parent) loans.
3. Loans disbursed prior to 10-17-1986 and able to distinguish from PLUS (parent) loans.
4. Loans originally made or purchased with tax-exempt funds originally issued prior to 10-1-1993 receive the regular special allowance rate but not less than 9.5% minus the applicable interest rate. Loans made or purchased with tax-exempt funds originally issued on or after 10-1-1993, loans held in tax-exempt bond issues that were refunded on or after 10-1-2004, and loans made or purchased on or after 2-8-2006 regardless of funding source (except those held by lenders eligible for the HERA of 2005 special exemptions), receive regular special allowance and must be reported using the taxable special allowance codes.
5. PLUS and SLS loans first disbursed on/after 7-1-1998 but before 12-31-2008 will have a taxable special allowance if the annual interest rate calculation does not exceed the applicable maximum interest rate.
6. Eligible Not-For-Profit (ENFP) holders may receive the increased Special Allowance Factor on loans made on or after October 1, 2007 if they meet the statutory and regulatory requirements for ENFP holders and are designated as such in the Department of Education’s Lender Reporting System (LaRS).
7. The HERA created a special exception for loans made or purchased through December 31, 2009, if the holder (1) Was, as of February 8, 2006, and during the quarter, not owned or controlled by, or under common ownership or control with, a for-profit entity; and (2) Held, directly or through any subsidiary, affiliate, or trustee, a total unpaid balance of principal equal to or less than $100 million; or (3) Held, directly or through any subsidiary, affiliate, or trustee, a total unpaid balance of principal equal to or less than $100 million; or (4) Had, directly or through any subsidiary, affiliate, or trustee, common ownership or control with, a for-profit entity; and (5) Held, directly or through any subsidiary, affiliate, or trustee, a total unpaid balance of principal equal to or less than $100 million.
8. FFELP loans first disbursed on/after 7-1-2008 must be reported at the 6% rate when a borrower’s interest rate is limited to 6% under the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act if the loan’s applicable rate is higher than 6%. This also includes subsidized Stafford loans to graduates that have a 6.8% applicable rate.
