

#	Subject	Summary of Change to Common Manual	Type of Update	Effective Date
1307	Removing Remaining References to Conditional Discharge Period	This change is necessary to eliminate all references to the conditional discharge period for loans discharged for total and permanent disability. No FFELP loans are still monitored under conditional discharge rules. All total and permanent disability discharge applicants are eligible for the post-discharge monitoring period rules for applications received on or after July 1, 2010.	Correction	Total and permanent disability discharge applications received on or after July 1, 2010

Batch 202 (Approved)